Dear Country Fair Concessionaire:

In the past, the Strawberry Festival Board has always insisted that any participant in the food section of the Strawberry Festival's Country Fair carry liability insurance. Because of the rising costs of insurance, some concessionaires found it impossible for them to secure the appropriate liability insurance. In an effort to solve this problem, the Board has investigated and found a carrier who provides a group policy to cover vendors at a very affordable rate. For more information, contact Rhodes-Warden Insurance (541) 258-2131.

In the event that you do not wish to secure liability coverage (we strongly suggest you have some type of coverage, however it is not mandatory this year), the Strawberry Festival Board insists that you sign an indemnification and a hold-harmless agreement with the Lebanon Strawberry Festival Association.

The terms of the Indemnification agreement are as follows:

In consideration for being allowed to participate in the Lebanon Strawberry Festival's Country Fair, we for ourselves and assigns release, waive, discharge and covenant not to pursue any claim against the Strawberry Festival Board of the Strawberry Festival Association and its members for any loss or damage or any claim thereof.

The undersigned further agrees to indemnify and hold the Strawberry Festival Association, its members and employees harmless from any claim that is made against them by reason of our participation in the Lebanon Strawberry Festival event. This agreement shall be binding and insure to the benefit of our heirs and assigns.

In requiring this indemnification agreement, it is understood that the Lebanon Strawberry Festival Board is not conceding or agreeing that it has any liability for the actions of the concessionaire.
